Katarina IVANČEVIĆ, LL.D
Associate professor at Faculty of Law, University Union, Belgrade

Notary professional insurance

SUMMARY

The author first discusses the nature of the legal profession and the basis for the liability of the Notary public. The activity of Notary public is very complex so that the representatives of the profession are exposed to the numerous risks, and the implementation of these risks may be detrimental to their customers. In Serbian law the introduction of legal requirements of insurance liability for the profession of Notary public is consistent with the comparative solution. Notary public profession is new institution in this country and complicates the business of insurance companies. The author presents the basic characteristics of this type of insurance with an emphasis on comparative legal solutions and case law, suggesting the solutions that can be useful to apply in terms of ensuring accountability of Notary public for Serbian insurer.